Beer Bottles Bust Bathing; Break-Ins Batter Business

Burglars and vandals have had a field day in Fulton within the past few days with three local business houses reporting break-ins and officials of the New Willow Plunge Swimming pool report closing of the pool, because broken beer bottles litter the deep end. One break-in occurred last Thursday night while the broken beer bottle shower and two other break-ins were made known Wednesday morning.

Fulton police who are investigating the incidents report that more than three cases of beer bottles were apparently thrown into the pool.

Meacham's Market on Commercial Avenue was broken into Tuesday night and over a dollar in pennies and five or six cartons of cigarettes were stolen. Also, the filling cabinet was torn up by the thieves. No contents were taken it appears.

James Meacham, owner of the grocery store, said that entrance was gained by tearing the facing off the back door. It appeared as if the thieves first made their entrance into the building by removing a back window, which led to a back room of the store. Falling to gain entrance to the main part of the store, they left by the window, then broke the back door open. Mr. Meacham said that the pennies were taken from the cash register.

Local police are investigating the break-in. And burglars again made a visit to the Charles Scates B. F. Goodrich Store although their total loot was far less than the nearly $600 stolen in October 1958. Bobby Scates, manager of the local store said that Tuesday's break-in netted the thieves a small amount of cash but they got away with an expensive 35 mm camera that was in the store.

It was learned Wednesday morning that there was a break-in at the Coca-Cola Plant here last Thursday night, when a small amount of change was taken from the cash drawer. Pete Pitzer, owner, said that entrance was gained

Hickman County Awarded Major Road Contracts

Contract awards totaling $587,237 for road improvements were announced Monday by the Department of Highways.

The biggest contract — $83,764 — went to R. B. Tyler Co., Louisville, for 7.1 miles of bituminous surfacing on various roads in Hickman County.

The Tyler Co. also was awarded a contract for incidental base repair on 2.8 miles of the Farmer Road in Hickman County.

Meanwhile Harry Lee Waterfield told a delegation of interested Fulton citizens this week that the contract for the improvement of East State Line in Fulton would be let.

Mr. Waterfield told the Fulton delegation that two weeks ago he discussed the local project with Highway Commissioner Ward Oates and was assured by the Commissioner that this project, promised to the people in the recent campaign, would be carried out.

Edwards Sworn Into Office As Magistrate; To Hold Court

C. D. "Spud" Edwards was recently sworn into office as magistrate of the First District (the Fulton area) and is holding court each day, if necessary upstairs in the magistrate's office at the City Hall.

Beginning in 1958 magistrates could not have criminal trials, where they received fees on convictions. The Legislature passed a bill, where magistrates in counties of this size, would receive a salary of $100 a month, in lieu of the fee system. The Fiscal Courts in several counties then appointed their magistrates to try cases under the salary system as provided by the Kentucky Legislature. About three lawsuits were filed to protest

AROUND TOWN WITH NO HEADS

(Ed's Note: It shouldn't happen to a dawg. When we had every indication that we were going to be off the press today at five, the so-and-so linotype machine acted up and it was the machine that sets the headlines. So in order not to leave out the news we just decided to run the stories without any headlines, hence around town with no heads. Jow.)

Want to hear an eye-witness account of Queen Elizabeth's visit to Chicago? You can have that pleasure when you turn to the "My Fair Lady" program on WFUL this morning (Thursday) at nine-thirty a. m.

Mary Nette Wright will have as her guest Mrs. Arthur Larson of Chicago who is visiting her friend, Mrs. Ted Clark in Fulton. Mrs. Larson, a resident of Chicago had a ring-side seat at the festivities for the Queen in the Windy City and you'll have a ring-side seat in your home when you hear Mrs. Larson interviewed on WFUL today.

Mrs. Clark was hostess to an informal coffee party for Mrs. Larson on Wednesday morning.

Butterflies and airplanes are the order of the day at the Norman Terry home in Fulton today. The butterflies have taken over the Norman Terrys (in the turn-my) because an airplane is winging in the Robert H. Ivey family from Paris, France today. Lt.-Col. Ivey and his wife and the five interesting Ivey children arrived in New York this morning and were met at the airport by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gerrish of Washington. (Mr. Gerrish is executive secretary to Senator John Sherman Cooper.)

After a short visit in New York and Washington the Iveys will visit in Fulton and the biggest news of this season for the whole family is that Lt.-Col. Ivey will be stationed at Fort Campbell, Kentucky on this next tour of duty.

Who's happier than the Terrys? Nobody except everybody in Fulton.

Fulton's All-Star Little League ball teams won one and lost one in the exciting All-Star playoff being held at Dyersburg this week. With Jimmy Yates on the mound the Fulton team won 10-2 on Monday, but lost on Tuesday night, with the same score, reversed a little, 2-10.

Members of the All-Star team are: Greg Williamson, P. D. Blaylock, Tommy Toon, Bobby Hastings, Ronnie Grissom, Ward Bushart, Thomas Russell, Jim-

Paducah Makes Final Offer To KU; TVA In South Fulton By Early Next Year

The City of Paducah made what it called its "final offer" in negotiations to buy the properties of the Kentucky Utilities Company, delegations from affected cities are attending a meeting for low cost power at Cumberland Falls this week-end and the City of South Fulton sees TVA power for some of its citizens by the first of the year. That's the news this week from the TVA front.

KU has promised to decide by Friday whether the offer is acceptable, said Robert Nolan, chairman of the Paducah's electric plant board.

The offer concerns the length of time Paducah would purchase wholesale power from Kentucky Utilities Company under the sale agreement. The price Paducah is willing to pay for the system and the rate of the wholesale power already have been decided upon.

Acceptance of the Monday offer would put Paducah in position to purchase the system because the term issue is the only point of disagreement.

The board has not disclosed the price or rate and Nolan said it is not yet in position to announce the proposal concerning the wholesale power term.

Full Story Promised

"We don't think it is appropriate before conclusion of negotiations to make public all of the details, but as soon as negotiations are completed, one way or the other, we will present to the people of Paducah the full story of what has gone on," said the chairman. Nolan pointed out that Paducah must complete negotiations soon if the question of acquiring the KU system is put on the ballot for the November election.

"If we are to get a contract drafted and be able to get the proposal on the ballot for November, we must reach an agreement right away and get it signed by early September," Nolan said.

Meanwhile Ro Gardner and Harold Everett of Hickman and Rodney Miller and Clyde Williams, Jr., of Fulton are among the Fulton County citizens, representing their respective cities, attending a meeting being held at Cumberland Falls this week-end to discuss low cost power for citizens in the Tennessee Valley Authority area.

South Fulton, Tenn. excluded from the "freeze" of the huge TVA financing bill now on President Eisenhower's desk sees some of its citizens using TVA power by the first of the year. B. B. Crockett, manager of the Weakley County Municipal Electric Power system told the News on Wednesday that

Ken-Tenn Area Mourns Passing Of Beloved And Respected W. W. Jones

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family of William Wayne Jones, well known funeral director of Martin who passed away Sunday night at his home after a long illness. With the death of this beloved and respected citizen much of the sentimental history and folklore of Tennessee and Kentucky goes to rest with him, for in his heart he carried a wealth of historical events handed down through the generations as a result of love and association.

A man with a keen mind and vivid memory he could recount the smallest detail of his family history and the part his family played in the civic, cultural and religious development of the Kentucky-Tennessee area.

A staunch and devout Christian he was in a profession that afforded him every opportunity to show his devotion and affection for his fellowman. He numbered his many friends by his associates and acquaintances and the sincerity of each sympathetic gesture he made brought him many long and devoted friendships.

Wayne Jones was a man of great stature and personal following and yet when speaking of his loved ones he was humble enough and sincere enough to choke up with tears when any little honor was paid to him and his family.

The staffs of the Fulton News and Radio Station WFUL have lost a fine and devoted friend as have many families all over this area that he loved so well.

He was born July 25, 1882 and was the son of the late John F. and Mary Frances Golden Jones. Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in Martin with Rev. Charles A. Wingo and Rev. H. H. Boston officiating at 2:30 p. m., Tuesday. Burial was in East Side Cemetery.

Mr. Jones entered the funeral home business in 1910 and for a number of years was associated with the late L. A. Winstead in Winstead-Jones Funeral Home in Fulton. This business was located at the site of the Jones Hospital here. He later moved to Martin and was the owner of W. W. Jones & Sons Funeral Home there for many years.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church at Martin and was a member of the Board of Trustees at Union University, Jackson, Tenn.

Survivors include — His wife Mrs. Mattie L. Jones of Martin; a son, Truett Jones, Martin; three daughters, Mrs. V. A. Richardson, Martin, Mrs. W. D. Meador, Jr., Atlanta, Georgia, Mrs. Ute F. Haliburton, Bowling Green; two sisters, Mrs. A. C. Butts of Fulton, Mrs. Roscoe Shanklin, Dresden, Route 4 and a brother, Dr. D. L. Jones, Fulton. Three grandchildren also survive.

Council Meetings Are Postponed

Both the Fulton and South Fulton city council meetings, scheduled for Monday night, were postponed.

The Fulton council meeting was postponed because Mayor Nelson Tripp is on vacation in Colorado, and the South Fulton council meeting was postponed because several of the council members were absent.

The Fulton council will meet next Monday night. The date of the South Fulton council meeting has not been announced yet.

Organization of Community Chest Discussed By B & P W

Purchase Mobile Milling Co. Here

Joe Powell and Gene Moody on August 1 purchased the Dixie Mobile Milling Company in South Fulton from Dr. H. W. Connaughton.

Mr. Moody and James Dedmon will be managers of the local business, which is located at 429 East State Line.

Mr. Powell and Mr. Moody have been operating a mobile milling company out of Union City.

Mr. Powell also owns and operates a lime company business in South Fulton and Union City.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Fulton-South Fulton Business and Professional Woman's Club Tuesday night, it was suggested that the new club have as its first project the organization of a Community Chest in Fulton, something the town is badly in need of and has been without for many years.

Mrs. Nelle Lowe, president, appointed a committee to check with Union City, Mayfield and Murray, to see just what steps should be taken to organize a Chest here. If the Chest is organized, the club's funds received in its Cook Book sale will be used to start the Chest fund.

At the pot-luck dinner meeting at the K. U. Auditorium Tuesday evening, the club members voted to sponsor a local girl in the Purchase District Fair Queen Contest at Mayfield on the night of Aug. 24.

The queen and her four attendants will receive trophies and other prizes, and will assist in presenting of awards during the fair.

Requirements are that queen candidates be Purchase District residents for at least one year prior to Aug. 20, 1959, be aged 16 through 21 years, single, and not winners of previous queen contests.

The contest is sponsored by the Mayfield Business and Professional Woman's Club, with Dr. Lucy Stam as chairman. Each entry must be sponsored by a merchant, civic group, club or organization. Sponsor fee is $5.00 per contestant. Entries must be in by midnight Thursday, Aug. 20.

Formals will be worn for the contest, which will be judged on the basis of beauty, stage poise and personality. Judges will be from out of town.

All money derived from the contest, outside of expenses, will be used to sponsor the dental unit for underprivileged children which the B&PW Club pays for each year.

Tuesday night the B&PW members voted to change their meeting date to the first Tuesday night of each month. The date will not be changed again, Mrs. Lowe said.

The next meeting will be a dinner-meeting at the Derby Cafe.

Three new members were voted into the club. They are Miss Agnes Chmura, Miss Kathryn Kearby and Mrs. Virginia Stokes.

Accepts Position At University

Kellie Lowe, Jr., former announcer at radio station WFUL, has accepted a position with the engineering staff of the University Radio Station WBAA, Purdue University. He will leave Aug. 9 to enter college and to accept his new position. He has been attending the University of Southern Illinois. Kellie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kellie Lowe of West State Line.

Stars, Sun Make Jazz Festival "Profound Gass"

By Ken Turner

From July 30 through August 2 the small resort town of French Lick, Indiana, was swamped with thousands of jazz fans for the Second Annual French Lick Jazz Festival.

Thursday morning Richard Cardwell and I left for French Lick with tickets to the concerts but no place to stay. Not being financially overburdened, we didn't take a suite in the French Lick Sheraton Hotel, sponsor of the festival. A chance conversation brought directions to the home of Elder and Mrs. L. S. Howard, who graciously consented to rent us a room for the four days.

Hundreds of hardy, and "unlucky", enthusiasts pitched tents on the hotel grounds or even slept in their cars.

The festival is directed by George T. Wein, director of the Newport Jazz Festival, and a tremendous musician in his own right. The Master of Ceremonies Thursday and Friday was Mr.

Willis Conover of the Voice of America radio program: Ken Nordine, the originator of Word Jazz, took over as MC for the last two days.

There were seven concerts, one each afternoon except Thursday at 2:30 and one each night at 8:30. However, the ninety degree heat made one of the Sheraton's three swimming pools more inviting than the afternoon symposiums.

The Thursday night program featured Count Basie and his orchestra, the Modern Jazz Quartet, George Shearing, Sarah Vaughn, Ken Nordine, and Lambert-Hendricks-Ross.

Friday, after "breakfast" at 12:30, we spent the afternoon swimming, driving around the little town, and, as usual with a couple of boys, eating. Then about 7:00 we headed for our favorite seats on the fifth row from the stage. With the exception, in our opinions, of the Chico Hamilton Quartet, it was an excellent program, featuring Maynard Ferguson's orchestra, Dakota Staton,

Ken Turner

Roy Eldridge, the Dukes of Dixieland, Coleman Hawkins, and a youth band from a Stan Kenton training camp. Andre Previn had to cancel his appearance because of Hollywood contracts, so Annie Ross, Sarah Vaughn, Helen Humes, George Wein, Chico Hamilton, Jon Hendricks and Dave Lambert put on an impromptu jam session that was really wild.

Saturday, after breakfast at 11:45, the pool still looked better than the symposium, so in we went.

Saturday night showcased Stan Kenton, the Kingston Trio, Chris Connor, and Ahmad Jamal. As at the Newport festival, the Kingston Trio, singing folk songs, got more audience response than some of the regular jazz soloists. The traffic after the show was very light — it only took forty-seven minutes to drive three blocks!

Sunday afternoon Richard and I finally thought enough of the talent lineup to attend the session in the sun. After Kai Winding and the Dave Baker orchestra performed, we skipped out on the rest of the bill. Two and a half hours in the stifling heat had slightly dampened our enthusiasm.

Sunday night featured twelve stars plus their sidemen. Jack Teagarden led off with his trio, followed by the Miles Davis septet. Marion McPartland's trio played two numbers then was joined by her husband Jimmy, Pee Wee Russell, Vic Dickenson, Bucky Clayton, Jimmy Rushing, George Wein, and Jack Teagarden for a real swinging set.

Dizzy Gillespie and his combo followed, then turned the spotlight over to the Dave Brubeck Quartet to close out a truly enjoyable but slightly too long four days.

In spite of the regular hours: breakfast at 12:00, dinner at 4:00, and supper at midnight, in spite of the heat (it was really the humidity), in spite of the hard seats and the mosquitoes, I think we are going to take every legal step, and a few not-so-legal ones, to get back next year.

In the words of Peter Gunn, it was a "Profound Gass."

Area Newspapers Went All Out For Our Centennial; Let's Write Bill Powell And Others To Thank Them

We know that so many times, that you, like us have nice thoughts about nice people and make a mental resolution to make your thoughts known to those people. But all too often the intention stops with the thought and a good resolution goes astray.

So it has been, we are sure, with the thought of gratitude you have had about the tremendous amount of wonderful publicity that was afforded Fulton's great centennial by Bill Powell of the Paducah Sun-Democrat and by other newspapers that circulate in Fulton.

While the Courier-Journal, the Mayfield Messenger, the Union City Messenger and the Commercial Appeal did more than their duty in reporting the centennial, it was Bill Powell and his co-workers at the Paducah Sun-Democrat who went all out to cover the advance events of the centennial and of course the centennial itself. Bill came to Fulton on numerous occasions with his trusty copy paper and pencil and was right there when the news was happening.

As a matter of fact we have come to regard Bill Powell as a Fulton citizen almost, for he has been invited to speak here on many occasions and does a creditable job in every thing he undertakes. We detect a real soft spot in Bill's heart for Fulton, its people and its community endeavors and we are grateful to him for many reasons.

So today when you read this little, humble tribute to Bill Powell and the other fine newspapers who made our centennial a success, why not drop them a note and tell them so. We are sure Bill knows we appreciate his efforts. But just so there'll be no doubt, tell him and the others so today.

Police News Of Record Should Be Matter For Public Information; News Blackout Is Quite Dangerous

It is not likely that the many area readers of this newspaper are not also listeners of Radio Station WFUL's popular live-wire news program each morning at seven a. m. It is with deep appreciation that we herewith acknowledge the fine cooperation the station has received from the various news sources such as hospitals, funeral homes, sheriff and police departments and many citizens who give the livewire, and its parent program OPERATION CALL-IN, so many news items.

However, last week the station discontinued its morning call to the Fulton, Kentucky, police department for the reason that has been plainly obvious to you and to us for the past several weeks.

The management of the Radio Station regrets the action it was forced to take in spite of the fact that the station believes firmly in the people's right to know the news from its police department.

No reputable news media is desirous of making public any police information that might tend to block attempts to apprehend a law violator or to obstruct justice. And it was not the intention of WFUL to report news that was not a matter of public record.

It was common knowledge among staff members of the station that some Fulton, Kentucky police officers took a dim view of the morning call and their apathy in that direction was plainly evident. While we are completely aware of the rather difficult conditions under which police officers operate, that their salaries are not commensurate with their risks and that they are not among a city's most appreciated citizens, we feel that their general attitude sometimes is not conducive to making their lot in life any more serene.

The management of WFUL does not regard the discontinuance of the morning news call to the Fulton police department as a minor action. Actually it has very serious connotation. How serious remains a matter of consideration by the Mayor and City Council and for you the tax-paying citizens of Fulton, Kentucky who support the department.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

A Name To Know—And Respect

By Rev. Leo J. Trese.

Author of The Faith Explained, Wisdom Shall Enter and others

"What's in a name?" once asked Shakespeare. His famous answer, "That which we call a rose by any other name would smell as sweet," is only half true.

A NAME, whether it be of a person or of a thing, gathers many emotional overtones by constant use. A name ceases to be just a group of letters taken from the alphabet; a name comes to represent the person or thing which bears the name.

The emotions aroused in us by the word "rose" are quite different from those evoked by the name "skunk cabbage." A young man in love only has to hear his sweetheart's name mentioned, even casually by a stranger, to make his pulse rate rise.

MEN have killed — and been killed — "in defense of their good name." Whole families have been grieved because some member of the family

"brought disgrace on the family name."

All this is obvious, of course. But it serves to recall to mind why it is a sin to misuse God's name — to use it carelessly or irreverently.

THE MOST common way in which we may fail in our duty to respect God's name is the sin of profanity — the use of the Holy Name simply to relieve our feelings. "My God, no!" "For Christ's sake, stop making that noise!" Seldom a day passes, as we go about our activities, that we do not hear these and similar phrases.

Sometimes, indeed, there is not even the excuse of emotion; we encounter persons who scatter God's name throughout their conversation as casually as you or I might mention apples or onions. Always, of course, they testify to a lack or shallowness in their love for God.

USUALLY such language is the result of thoughtlessness and carelessness rather than malice — there is no deliberate intent to dishonor God or to show contempt for His name. Still, it shows disrespect for God and it can cause grave scandal; for example, if a parent by his profanity weakened respect for God's name in his children.

If we love God we shall love His name and never speak it except with reverence. We shall never use it as an expletive, as an expression of anger or impatience or surprise; we shall do nothing to bring infamy upon His name.

INDEED, a name stands for the one who bears the name — and our attitude towards God's name reflects our attitude towards Him whose name it is Friday I spent a most enjoyable afternoon out on the R. L. McNatt farm near Dukedom.

Mr. McNatt is one of those fortunate people who doesn't have to work for a living, so he spends his time going to conventions, singings and "collecting and cleaning up old things."

Mr. McNatt, who is quite a historian, collects all kinds of old items. He has old guns, old bells, books, works of art, and practically anything you might think of. All of his collector's items are very interesting and many are very valuable.

Over the years, we have written many articles about Mr. McNatt, and he has brought many of his show pieces to our office for us to see, but until Friday I had never found the right time to accept his invitation to visit his farm.

Mr. McNatt has almost completed a building at the corner of his beautiful, tree-shaded lawn. The building will be turned into a museum, dedicated to the memory of his mother, who died several years ago.

Mr. McNatt, whose parents were pioneer citizens of Weakley County, divides his time between his farm near Dukedom and Dresden, Tenn. Mr. McNatt owns a house at Dresden, but has lived in a boarding house there for the past 17 years.

Mr. McNatt, a very friendly type of a person, is active in the American Legion, the Masonic Lodge, the Elks Lodge and other organizations. He has served as Tennessee state commander of the American Legion for a number of years.

Fulton's Centennial Queen Shirley Puckett and her husband, Ralph, will leave late Friday for Miami Beach, Fla., for their week's all-expenses paid trip at a swanky hotel there.

Mrs. Puckett won the trip for two as a prize for being selected Centennial Queen. She and Mr. Puckett will complete their summer's studies at Murray State College Friday morning.

I want to tell you something funny. Our boss Paul is in Leavenworth for the next two weeks, so our boss Jo came down to the office to work Monday morning. June and I have been complaining all summer about how hot it was, but still no air-conditioner. Will Paul be surprised when he gets back, for Jo hadn't been in the office more than a half-hour, before she had ordered an air-conditioner for the office. An hour later it had been installed. We thank you, Jo. She really knows how to get things done—especially when things get hot.

Social Security Information Told

Are you losing some of your social security payments? Probably not, but some persons do, according to Charles M. Whitaker, Manager of the Paducah Office. Thousands of dollars are lost each year by failure to file an application for old age benefits.

If you are planning to retire this year, you should file your application at least a month before your 65th birthday (62nd birthday if you are a woman and plan to retire before you are 65). If you file early, your claim can be processed more quickly and your checks can be expected sooner.

Don't delay; inquire before you retire. Your social security representative will be glad to help you in preparing your application. Check with him or inquire at your local social security office.

Mrs. Johanna M. Westpheling,

c/o The News,
Fulton, Kentucky

Dear Jo:

Once again I am back in my Mountain View, California office which is very pleasant after having been away from it for five full weeks.

The highlight of Ruth's and my vacation was the two days spent in Fulton. Usually I am not at ease over the microphone but do wish to tell you very honestly that under your guidance I felt quite my natural self except for the point later on in the program when I was presented with a scroll by George Hubley, making me a Kentucky Colonel and even though a pleasant one it certainly was an unexpected surprise of the first order.

Mayor Counce of South Fulton pointed out your husband, Paul, to me at the luncheon table last Friday and I did so want to meet him not only because he was your husband but because he had such a marvelous set of whiskers, but during the hustle and bustle at the end of the luncheon I missed seeing either of you.

Ruth joins me in thanking you personally, together with all of your many friends in Fulton and South Fulton, on such genuine and sincere cordiality, and looking forward to coming back to Fulton soon and seeing you again when I do, I remain

Cordially yours,

TIPS FOR EASY LIVING.

When "dog days" with real August sizzlers come along, most of us take to the outdoors. Whether it's porch, patio or just the backyard, we're often out of the house when the phone rings. That's when a handy extension phone fits the spot for real relaxing. Saves running inside, often to get there too late. So, here's the first tip for a more leisurely summer—have your phones where you need them—just give us a ring and we'll put them in your home for fingertip convenience.

ON VACATION TOO, telephones can help you relax. A quick Long Distance call ahead can arrange hotel or motel reservations. And, if you're wondering about someone at home, check up first-hand by Long Distance. Because wherever you are, there's a telephone nearby to make your summer pleasanter and more comfortable.

THE "INSTANTS"—Have been noticing how many instant foods there are these days, giving homemakers more time to relax. Makes me think of another "instant" that gives us a deep-down reason to relax and feel easy. That's the fine defense warning systems set up to flash warnings of approaching airborne objects quicker than you can fix a cup of instant coffee. Telephone scientists and engineers who work to perfect ever-better service for you, also help set up these systems. It's good to know they're constantly working on new developments to help guard our country.

Farm News, Meetings, Events

(Ed's note: the following information, supplied THE NEWS by the USDA, ASC, nearby County Agents and agricultural agencies will be of special interest to progressive farmers in the Ken-Tenn area):

1960 SOIL BANK DETAILS READY BY MID-AUGUST

Farmers of Fulton county who are interested in the Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank for the 1960 crop season will be able to get full information at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office after the middle of August, ASC Chairman Roy Bard said today.

The 1960 Conservation Reserve will be similar to the 1959 program, Mr. Bard said, except that substantially less new acreage will be taken into the program than last year. The basic national rate of payment will be $13.50, the same as in 1959.

The principal changes in the program this year will be as follows:

1. Land owned by a state, county, town, or local government will be ineligible for the program—a rule which is already in effect for Federal land.

2. Land which has changed ownership (except through inheritance) since December 31, 1958 is ineligible to enter the program in 1960.

3. If land under a 1960 Conservation Reserve contract is sold, the contract generally may be assumed by the purchaser only after it has been in effect for three years.

As in 1959, the 1960 Conservation Reserve will be conducted on an offer-and-acceptance basis. The first step will be for the farmer to inform the county office of the land he wants to place in the program and request that a basic per-acre rate be established for that land. These rate requests may be filed at the county office beginning August 24 and must be filed not later than September 10 in the farmer wants to be considered for a 1960 contract.

The county committee will establish the rate, setting it 10 percent higher if all eligible cropland on the farm is to be retired.

After the basic rate has been determined, the farmer may apply for a contract at any figure below that rate. In case the county receives more applications than it can accept priority will be given to the farmer offering the land at the lowest rate compared with the basic rate established for his land. For example, if the basic rate on

Youth Week Begins At First Baptist

At the close of the morning service Sunday, the youth took over the entire program of the First Baptist Church for one full week. Symbols of leadership were given to Carl Wayne Wade, youth pastor; Glen Fuller, youth minister of music; and Morgan Fields, youth chairman of deacons.

The youth leaders took charge of the Training Union at 6:30 p. m. and the Evening Service at 7:30 p. m.

Taylor And Wife Win Las Vegas Trip

Dan Taylor of Taylor Chevrolet-Buick was a dealer winner in Group 13 in a recent sales promotion and as a prize receives an all-expense paid trip to Las Vegas, Nevada for he and Mrs. Taylor.

They left Monday morning and will be guests at the famed Flamingo Hotel.

Alexander To Be Music Director Here

The South Fulton Baptist Church has called Kenneth Alexander to serve as Interim Music Director.

He will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Don Holland. Mr. Holland has accepted the call of the Huntingdon First Baptist Church of Huntingdon. He began his work there on Aug. 1.

Mr. Alexander has attended Union University. He majored in the church music field and is an employee of the Perry-Morse Seed Co. He is married to the former Patsy Elliott.

a farmer's land is set at $12 an acre, he will have a better chance of getting a contract if he offers the land at $9 an acre than if he offers it at $10 or more.

A farmer who applied for a 1959 Conservation Reserve contract but was not offered one because of shortage of funds will get special consideration this year. Such a farmer will be offered a contract at the basic rate for his land reduced by the average amount of reduction for all offers received in the county. If he is not willing to accept such terms, his application will be considered on the regular basis along with other applications received.

For most farms, placing land under contract will require a corresponding acreage reduction in grains, oilseeds, and row crops, which are known as Soil Bank base crops. The per-acre rate will be earned each year the contract is in effect. In addition, a farmer can get a cost-share payment to assist in establishing approved conservation uses on the land.

$800 In Awards Offered Winners In 4-H Contest

Kentucky 4-H members are eligible to compete for $800 in U. S. Savings Bonds in the 1959 4-H Club Achievement Contest in Home Economics and Agriculture.

Awards of $100 bonds will go to the state champions in home economics and agriculture. They will be selected on the basis of projects, leadership and participation in 4-H community and county activities.

The top boy in agriculture and the top girl in home economics in each of Kentucky's six agricultural-extension districts will receive a $50 bond. In addition to the monetary prizes, the 14 winners and their parents will be guests of honor at the annual Farm Awards Luncheon in Louisville next February.

Certificates of merit will be awarded to the top achievement winner in each county.

Information concerning the contest may be obtained from home demonstration agents, county agents, or by writing the Public Service Department, The Courier-Journal and the Louisville Times, Louisville 2, Kentucky.

Diary of Doin's

(Items gathered along Fulton's merryway for your pleasure and your scrapbook)

Dear Diary—

Tonight I took a ride through our town. I passed the swimming pool which earlier in the day had been filled with so much gaiety. Evening shadows had carried this merriment across to the park, where the crack of a baseball bat and the whir of skates rang with childish laughter.

I drove to the baseball park—only a few nights ago filled with pioneer wagons, can-can girls, and atomic bombs.

And finally I rode by the stores, churches, and houses of Fulton—the scenes of so many lovely events this summer. How I wished I could remember them always! And a lone star, tiny but brilliant, peeked out of a cloud and smiled on our town.

Arriving home, I found this diary in my room—waiting for me to record the affairs of the Twin-Cities. Yet, as I take pen in hand, I realize that this won't be a chronicle of events but rather a record of the friendliness and graciousness that make Fulton "HOME".

June, traditionally the month of these was the delightful morning weddings, will probably be a very coffee that MRS. HARRY BRADY of Clinton had at the home here of her mother-in-law, MRS. FRED BRADY. LUCY, dressed in a yellow cotton, was especially vivacious that day as she visited with all her old neighbors from Clinton, for as you probably know, the ANDERSONS moved here from there. Some fifty guests called during the morning, and one of the main topics of conversation was the beautiful flowers arranged throughout the house. They were no surprise to me, however, for those of us who live near MRS. BRADY enjoy her flowers not only in her garden but in our homes too.

SUE, who will marry August 9, moved here last year from Parsons, Kansas. Certainly an attractive asset to the town, no one could agree more than LEROY SAWYER, the groom-to-be.

With all the parties and last minute preparations SUE, LUCY and BETTY are in a flurry of activity—and LUCY, whose wedding to CHARLES WADE ANDREWS will be August 15, has an added project—five adorable kittens which arrived in her home on Carr Street last week. As irresistible as they are, these babies can't interest a bride for whom so many parties have been held. One of MOZELLE'S bridge club; KATHRYN, MARY BOYD, DIXON GRAHAM, ELENOR HUDDLESTON, BELLE WHITESELL, DORIS WILEY, MRS. FRED CLOYS of Union City, and MRS. FRANK WILES of Martin. A very special guest that day was SUE SMITH, who with her husband, S. C. SMITH, is a houseguest of KATHRYN'S. A very old and dear friend of the GREGORYS, SUE is the SUE for whom BETTY SUE GREGORY is named.

A former Fultonian, now living in Leighton, Alabama, SUE is back for her first visit to Fulton in many years—and all her old friends are so glad to have her. Saturday she was the honoree at a luncheon given by MARY BOYD at the Park Terrace; and that evening she and her husband were both entertained at a back yard supper at the home of MRS. FRED CLOYS.

Another August wedding—the marriage of her niece—drew ETHEL McDANIEL and her two daughters, SUSAN and TERRY, all the way to Los Angeles, California. SUSAN, who was maid-of-honor in the wedding returned to Fulton Sunday, but ETHEL and TERRY are staying out west two more weeks.

Sunny California has, indeed, drawn its share of Fultonians this summer—MARGARET HOMRA and her kids, PAM, CINDY and RONNIE, spent the month of June there, (incidentally, one of the high spots of MARGARET'S trip was her visit with DR. JOE DAVIS and his wife, MARILY.) While CYNTHIA CAMPBELL just recently returned from a trip out that way.

Though not traveling to the coast, MR. and MRS. E. J. McCOLLUM, their grandchildren, NANCY and JIMMY TREAS, and MRS. VIRGIL DAVIS saw a bit of the old west while visiting the EDDIE BENEDICTS and their son ALAN in Fort Collins, Colorado. ALAN returned to Fulton with the group for a visit with his grandparents, the VIRGIL DAVISES; and you can bet NORMA and EDDIE would have liked to come with them. However, they will get to see some more home-folks this week when MONTELE and NELSON TRIPP arrive there for a visit. His stop in Fort Collins will climax for NELSON a tour that he has been making of the west along with ELMER McNATT and WARD and JOE JOHNSON, and you can imagine the fun those three have had.

Colorado to visit her last year's roommate at Christian College, who lives in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Writes ANNE, "We went ice skating and I about killed myself, but I'm having a ball!"

Another one of the "College Crowd" who is out of town this week is BARBARA BOYD, who is serving on the College Board at Julius Lewis in Memphis. Watch for her stunning pictures in the Memphis papers. One of Barbara's good friends, JUDY BROWNING, is having an even closer contact with college as she attends the summer session of school at Huntington in Montgomery, Alabama. JUDY gets home in two weeks and it's going to be hard to tell who's the happiest—RUTH, BILL, or JUDY.

Several weeks ago BETTY WEAKS put two of her little girls,

(The News has a guest diarist this week and we know you'll enjoy the entries in her hometown journal. Ed's Note)

CARMEN and MARIANNA on a plane for a visit with BETTY'S parents in Atlanta; and this week BETTY and the baby, CAROLINE, will drive to Atlanta—arriving just in time for CARMEN'S birthday.

Indeed, diary, so many people are coming and going this summer—it's hard to keep track!!

A beautiful bride-to-be and a beautiful home were combined Saturday for one of the loveliest events of the season when MARY ETHNA WILSON and VIVIAN WILLIAMSON entertained BEVERLY HILL with an exquisite tea at VIVIAN'S home. A pink color scheme prevailed in the dining room, and the tea girls in billowy organdies added such charm. BEVERLY, who will marry in early September, was dressed in a white sheath trimmed in blue, and her mother, EXIE, was a lovely complement in solid blue.

BEVERLY recently returned from a trip to Lexington, Kentucky, and while in that part of the state she was feted with two parties. One of these, a formal dinner, was held by NANCY WATERFIELD, at the home of her parents, LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR and MRS. HARRY LEE WATERFIELD in Frankfort, Kentucky. The other party was a kitchen shower given by JUDY PENNEBAKER and ALICE BROADBENT at the home of MRS. BLANTON COLLIER, Lexington, Kentucky. With these two charming affairs preluding her tea Saturday, BEVERLY'S week must have been a wonderful one.

News from Fulton's "Younger Set" includes several parties.... One last week was a hamburger supper that MARGARET OMAR had, honoring two out-of-town visitors, LINDA SNOW and SUSAN JONES. Both girls have lived in Fulton; so you can imagine the gay, giggling time the eleven guests had. LINDA, who now lives in Louisville, is the daughter of the JACK SNOWS, while SUSAN, of Corpus Christi, Texas, "belongs to" the JERRY JONES.

Several days later another group of girls gathered to help LYNN DALLAS celebrate her eleventh birthday. The party, held at the home of LYNN'S grandparents, MR. and MRS. CLAUDE SHELBY in Highlands, was a picnic, and a lot of fun was the order of the day!

BILL SIMRELL was another one with a birthday last week, and he, too, celebrated in fine style. BILL, who was twelve, had eight friends and his brother, CRAIG, for a barbecue supper and games. How nice it is to have such lovely families as the SIMRELLS come to Fulton.

'Twas ever so nice to see our little friend, Polly Penn Forehand, (Mrs. Cooper Forehand) of Lakeland Florida. Polly and Mrs. Foster Callihan of Lakeland were enroute to Seattle, Washington and stopped over Monday night with the Frank Beadles' on Third street. Polly is the daughter of Mary Elizabeth Beadles Penn and the late Ralph Penn, former Fultonians. Mrs. Callihan, who teaches at Florida Southern in Lakeland and Polly spend a month on an island off Puget Sound where Mrs. Callihan has a lovely summer home. They left Tuesday morning via plane from Paducah... and we're wondering if Polly got over the "butterflies" before she reached her destination. This was her first flight.

Swift Offers Employees Letter Writing Contest

More than 2,500 prizes, valued at $25,000, await employees of Swift & Company and associated units who submit the best entries in the firm's national letter writing contest, A. B. Thacker, manager of Swift & Company announced today.

The contest, to be held during August, will emphasize the importance and relationship between customers and jobs. This employee contest is one phase of the company's "Project Progress" program which spotlights the theme, "Sales Make Jobs."

Contestants will write on the subject, "What the Customer Means to Me and My Job." In addition to local prizes there will be 40 major national prizes. The grand prize will be one of the new, compact American cars to be introduced this fall. The best entry in each local contest will compete for national awards.

Vandalism has made it necessary to close, indefinitely, the new Willow Plunge Swimming pool when it was discovered Wednesday that the deep end of the pool was littered with broken beer bottles. Officials of the pool said that it would require several days before the pool can be carefully drained and cleaned. Local police are also investigating the case, although no arrests had been made at press time Wednesday.

This is the second time the pool has been broken into at night in recent weeks. A group of teenage boys climbed the fence and were found swimming in the pool about 11 o'clock one night. They were picked up by the police and warned that the pool is private property and anyone entering it after closing hours is subject to arrest.

The Circus Comes To Town In New Picture

Elephants, camels, lions and tigers, zebras and circus horses, top-ranking acrobats and other stars of the big top vie with a cast of formidable actors in "The Big Circus," produced by Irwin Allen in CinemaScope and Technicolor for Allied Artists. It comes to the Fulton Theatre Sunday—Aug. 9th.

The film stars Victor Mature, Red Buttons, Rhonda Fleming, Kathryn Grant, Vincent Price, Peter Lorre, David Nelson, Gilbert Roland and guest-star TV's Steve Allen.

A brand new dairy barn is under construction on the Cecil Davis farm near here and Mr. Davis is assisted by some co-workers, who are the do-it-yourself citizens.

The series of meeting in progress at Knob Creek Church of Christ the past week has just come to a close. The services were held nightly at 7:45 instead of twice daily as your writer first reported. The Rev. Alonzo Williams was visiting preacher, with Prof. Charles Wall song leader.

Water oak trees over this area have suffered from insects or worms this summer, when the pests have eaten and webbed up the leaves look as if they are dying as result. Not too many years ago the Chestnut trees died out from some disease, and now if we lose our oaks will be a great loss.

Many who were interested gathered at Acree Cemetery the past Saturday. It is an annual meeting for the committee to receive the work and pay the caretaker, and where the contract is let for the ensuing year. Mr. Bert Davis was the bidder. The memorial service was conducted by Rev. Dempsey Henderson in absence of Rev. L. W. Carlin. Basket lunch was spread on long tables with plenty of iced tea, lemonade and pop-colas and the day was spent in a tribute to our loved ones who rest there.

Mrs. Harvey Donoho is a patient in Jones Clinic where she has undergone surgery. Every good wish is extended by her many friends for a quick recovery. David Lassiter, Akron, Ohio has arrived home for a weeks vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Buton Lassiter.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Richman of Akron, spent last week here on vacation visiting parents. Johnny returned to his home and work Sunday while Sylvia remains here to be with her mother, the Mrs. Harvey Donoho.

Remember the date of the meeting on next Saturday, Aug. 8 at the Morgan Cemetery at 10 a. m. So all who wish may come and bring your contribution. The committee in charge will appreciate any donation. Mr. Jim Fagans has been the caretaker this year. The contract will be let for the upkeep for the coming year.

Deep sympathy goes out to the family of W. W. Jones from many friends here in his passing Sunday. His has been a useful life and has touched many who will miss

With JIM PRYOR

Agricultural Agent, Illinois Central Railroad

Nowadays, many farm authorities seem to express our farm dilemma simply in terms of getting bigger in order to solve all problems and nothing else. This idea is certainly not the answer to many, many farm problems and increasing the size of the farm in terms of acres, livestock numbers, more acres of crops will not be any means make your operations more efficient. You can be just as inefficient on a large farm as on a small one. It would also be foolish not to mention that doing the above mentioned changes could make a farm more efficient and profitable. But just to get larger it certainly not the answer today.

There seems to be an idea among many that only farmers can survive the cost price squeeze that we have been in for some time who do get larger. It is doubtful however if this is altogether true. While it is true there is lots of clearing up of small, tag end, inefficient operations, but it is not necessarily true that the future belongs only to the big, powerful, centralized agribusiness.

There are some good examples of what has happened to big centralized businesses. The Packing Industry is a splendid example. Small packers in modern plants have given the big packers a terrific run for their money, and the giants of this industry are being forced to decentralize and diversify their operations.

The same thing is happening in the poultry business. Egg and broiler operations have grown larger, but marketing and packing have been decentralized. The egg futures market is getting thinner. Eggs are moving to retail outlets under contract, bypassing the old central exchanges.

So — let's not say that there is not yet a place for the family sized farm operator and his family who are honestly striving to do a good job, watching overhead and producing with efficiency. Certainly our country needs this kind of a farmer and no doubt he can remain in business for years to come.

DID YOU KNOW???

Today, about 17 minutes of working time will buy a dozen eggs, compared to 40 years ago when it took 87 minutes.

WHY DO WITHOUT A LITTLE LUXURY LIKE THIS... LET ALONE

bigger brakes

Bigger, yes, and built with bonded linings for as much as 66% longer life. And how's this for proof that Chevy's a real stopper: in a NASCAR*-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds, Chevrolet outstopped both of the "other two" time after time.

*National Association for Stock Car Advancement and Research.

award-winning engines

The NASCAR Outstanding Achievement award goes to Chevrolet! Chevy wins for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines . . . for the establishment of new levels of V8 compactness combined with outstanding smoothness." And you can choose among eight V8's and the Six that won the Mobilgas Economy Run for its class.

full coil ride

You're the expert on ride, so you'll want to try Chevy's easygoing smoothness for yourself. MOTOR TREND magazine can give you a hint of what you're in for: "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." And Full Coil springs, of course, never squeak, never need grease.

fresh styling

POPULAR SCIENCE magazine gave Chevy's styling a thoughtful look, then said it this way: "In its price class, Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling . . ." You'll find your own happy way of saying that Chevy's the only unmistakably modern car in its class.

greater roominess

Automobile Manufacturers Association records carry the facts on this. In a Chevy sedan, for example, you've got more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars! And Chevy's front seat hip room spreads up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

bigger savings

Here's solid proof that Chevrolet squeezes more miles out of a gallon: In the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, two Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide took the first two places in their class. Winning mileage: 22.38 m.p.g. And that, friends, took top honors for Chevy from every full-sized car!

higher trade-in

N.A.D.A.* Guide Books prove that your Chevrolet will keep its value. Chevy used car prices last year, for example, averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the other two cars in Chevrolet's field.

Miss Lucy Anderson Reveals Plans For Wedding On August 15

Miss Lucy Virginia Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilson Anderson, whose engagement to Charles Wade Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews of Fulton, was recently announced is today revealing the completed plans for her wedding.

The wedding will be on Saturday afternoon, the fifteenth of August, at the First Methodist Church at four-thirty o'clock. The Reverend Joseph L. Leggett, pastor of the church, will officiate.

A program of nuptial music will be given by Miss Beverly Hill, soprano, and Miss Anna Mary DeMyer, organist.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. She has chosen Mrs. Frederick Spraggs of Murray, Kentucky as her matron of honor. Her bridesmaids will be Miss Paula DeMyer, Miss Betty Gregory, Miss Mary Ann Hill, and Miss Carolyn Roberts all of Fulton. Her junior bridesmaid is Miss Judy Andrews of Union City, cousin of the groom. Little Miss Gwen Graves of LaCenter, Kentucky cousin of the bride is flower girl.

The groom has chosen his father, Mr. Charles Andrews, as his best man. The ushers will be Phillip Andrews, brother of the groom, Charles Binford, Mikey Homra, and Jere Jigue all of Fulton, William Turner and Billy Mott Jones, both from Memphis, Tennessee and cousins of the groom.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will entertain with a reception at the church. Assisting at the reception will be Mrs. W. T. Meriwether of Portsmouth, New Hampshire; Mrs. C. W. Anderson, Jr., of Murray, Kentucky; Mrs. Joe Moore, Mrs. Fred Armstrong, Mrs. Fred W. Armstrong, and Mrs. Bennie Graves all of LaCenter; Mrs. Harry Brady of Clinton; Mrs. Donnie Rogers of Pensacola, Florida; Mrs. Forrest McAllister, Miss Barbara Ann Boyd, Miss Ella Doyle, and Miss Ruth Caldwell.

Miss Isbell Is Honored At Tea

A beautifully planned gift tea given on Tuesday afternoon of last week by the Sylvan Shade Homemakers honored Miss Virginia V. Isbell, who will pledge her wedding vows to Randall Louis Fox of Louisville Aug. 9 at the Woodland Mills Baptist Church.

The recreation room of the Popular Grove Church was decorated with arrangements of yellow daisies in low crystal bowls placed room. The serving table, which was overlaid with a white linen cloth, featured an arrangement of white lilies and greenery flanked by candelabra.

Miss Isbell's full-skirted frock of pale blue eyelet was designed with a bateau neckline and a matching cummerbund encircling the tiny waist. Rhinestone jewelry and white accessories complemented her attire and she was presented with a corsage of yellow poms.

The honoree's mother, Mrs. Lucian Isbell, wore a navy eyelet model featuring tiny rhinestone buttons down the full length of the front. Her accessories were of white call.

Miss Marilyn Owens presented a program of music.

Contests were conducted by Mrs. Paul T. Shaw with Mrs. Bess Rose as the winner. She presented her prize to the honoree.

Approximately 50 guests called during the afternoon.

HAVE PICNIC

The Crutchfield Homemakers met recently at the Fulton City Park for a picnic lunch. There were 20 present and everyone enjoyed being together. The picnic is an annual July affair.

Miss Betty Gregory Is Guest Of Honor At Bridge-Luncheon

Miss Betty Gregory, bride-elect of Charles Binford, was the guest of honor at a bridge-luncheon on Friday the thirty-first of July, nineteen hundred and fifty nine when Mrs. Smith Atkins, Mrs. Steve Wiley, Mrs. Warren Graham, Mrs. Arch Huddleston, Mrs. Wilmon Boyd, Mrs. Hunter Whitesel, Mrs. Fred Cloys of Union City, Tennessee and Mrs. Frank Wiles of Martin, Tennessee entertained at the spacious home of Mrs. Atkins on Third Street.

Many arrangements of summer flowers added attractiveness to the rooms used for the party. The dining room table which was the bride's table was centered with a lovely arrangement of roses, lilies, daisies and snapdragons in a silver bowl; tall silver candelabra with white tapers were at either side of the flowers; a miniature bride was at one end of the table and a double wedding ring was at the opposite end. The card tables arranged for the other guests were centered with bud vases holding roses. A delicious two course luncheon was served.

At the bridge games in the afternoon Mrs. Bob Binford held high score; Mrs. Charles Cannon held second high and Mrs. S. C. Smith was given a guest gift. The guest of honor was presented a gift corsage and also a handsome Chippendale silver tray by her hostesses.

For the party Miss Gregory wore a tulle-trimmed frock of pale blue pima cotton with multiple tiny tucks and inserts of Valenciennes lace. The bodice had a deep portrait neckline and tiny sleeves; the skirt was gathered. Her accessories were white.

The invited guest list included Mrs. Charles Gregory, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Bob Binford, mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. Charles W. Binford, Mrs. Ward Johnson, Mrs. Charles Cannon, Mrs. Don Hill, Mrs. Guy Duley, Mrs. C. W. Whitnel, Mrs. Harvey Caldwell, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. Frank Beadles, Mrs. V. J. Voegli, Mrs. J. U. Mike's right. Out of every 8-hour day, the average wage earner works 2 1/2 hours to pay his taxes, but only 7 minutes to pay for his electricity. When you consider all the things electricity does for your family, that's mighty little, isn't it? The money you spend each day for electricity wouldn't go very far toward paying your taxes.

Living costs vary, of course, from family to family; but the income and outgo of Joe and Mike represent those of the average wage earner in the U. S.
